

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

A piece of torn, aged paper with a green forest background. The paper is light beige with a textured, fibrous appearance. The edges are jagged and torn, revealing a vibrant green forest scene underneath. The forest consists of tall, thin trees with dense foliage. The overall composition is framed by a thin green border.

For God

So Loved the World

The image features a central piece of aged, yellowish-tan paper with a deckled, torn edge. This paper is set against a background of a lush green forest with tall trees. The entire composition is framed by a thin, solid green border. The text is centered on the paper and reads:

the World
Means any person
that has lived,
is living
or will live

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

Psalm 139:13

Listen to me, you islands; hear this, you distant nations: Before I was born the Lord called me; from my mother's womb he has spoken my name.

Isaiah 49:1

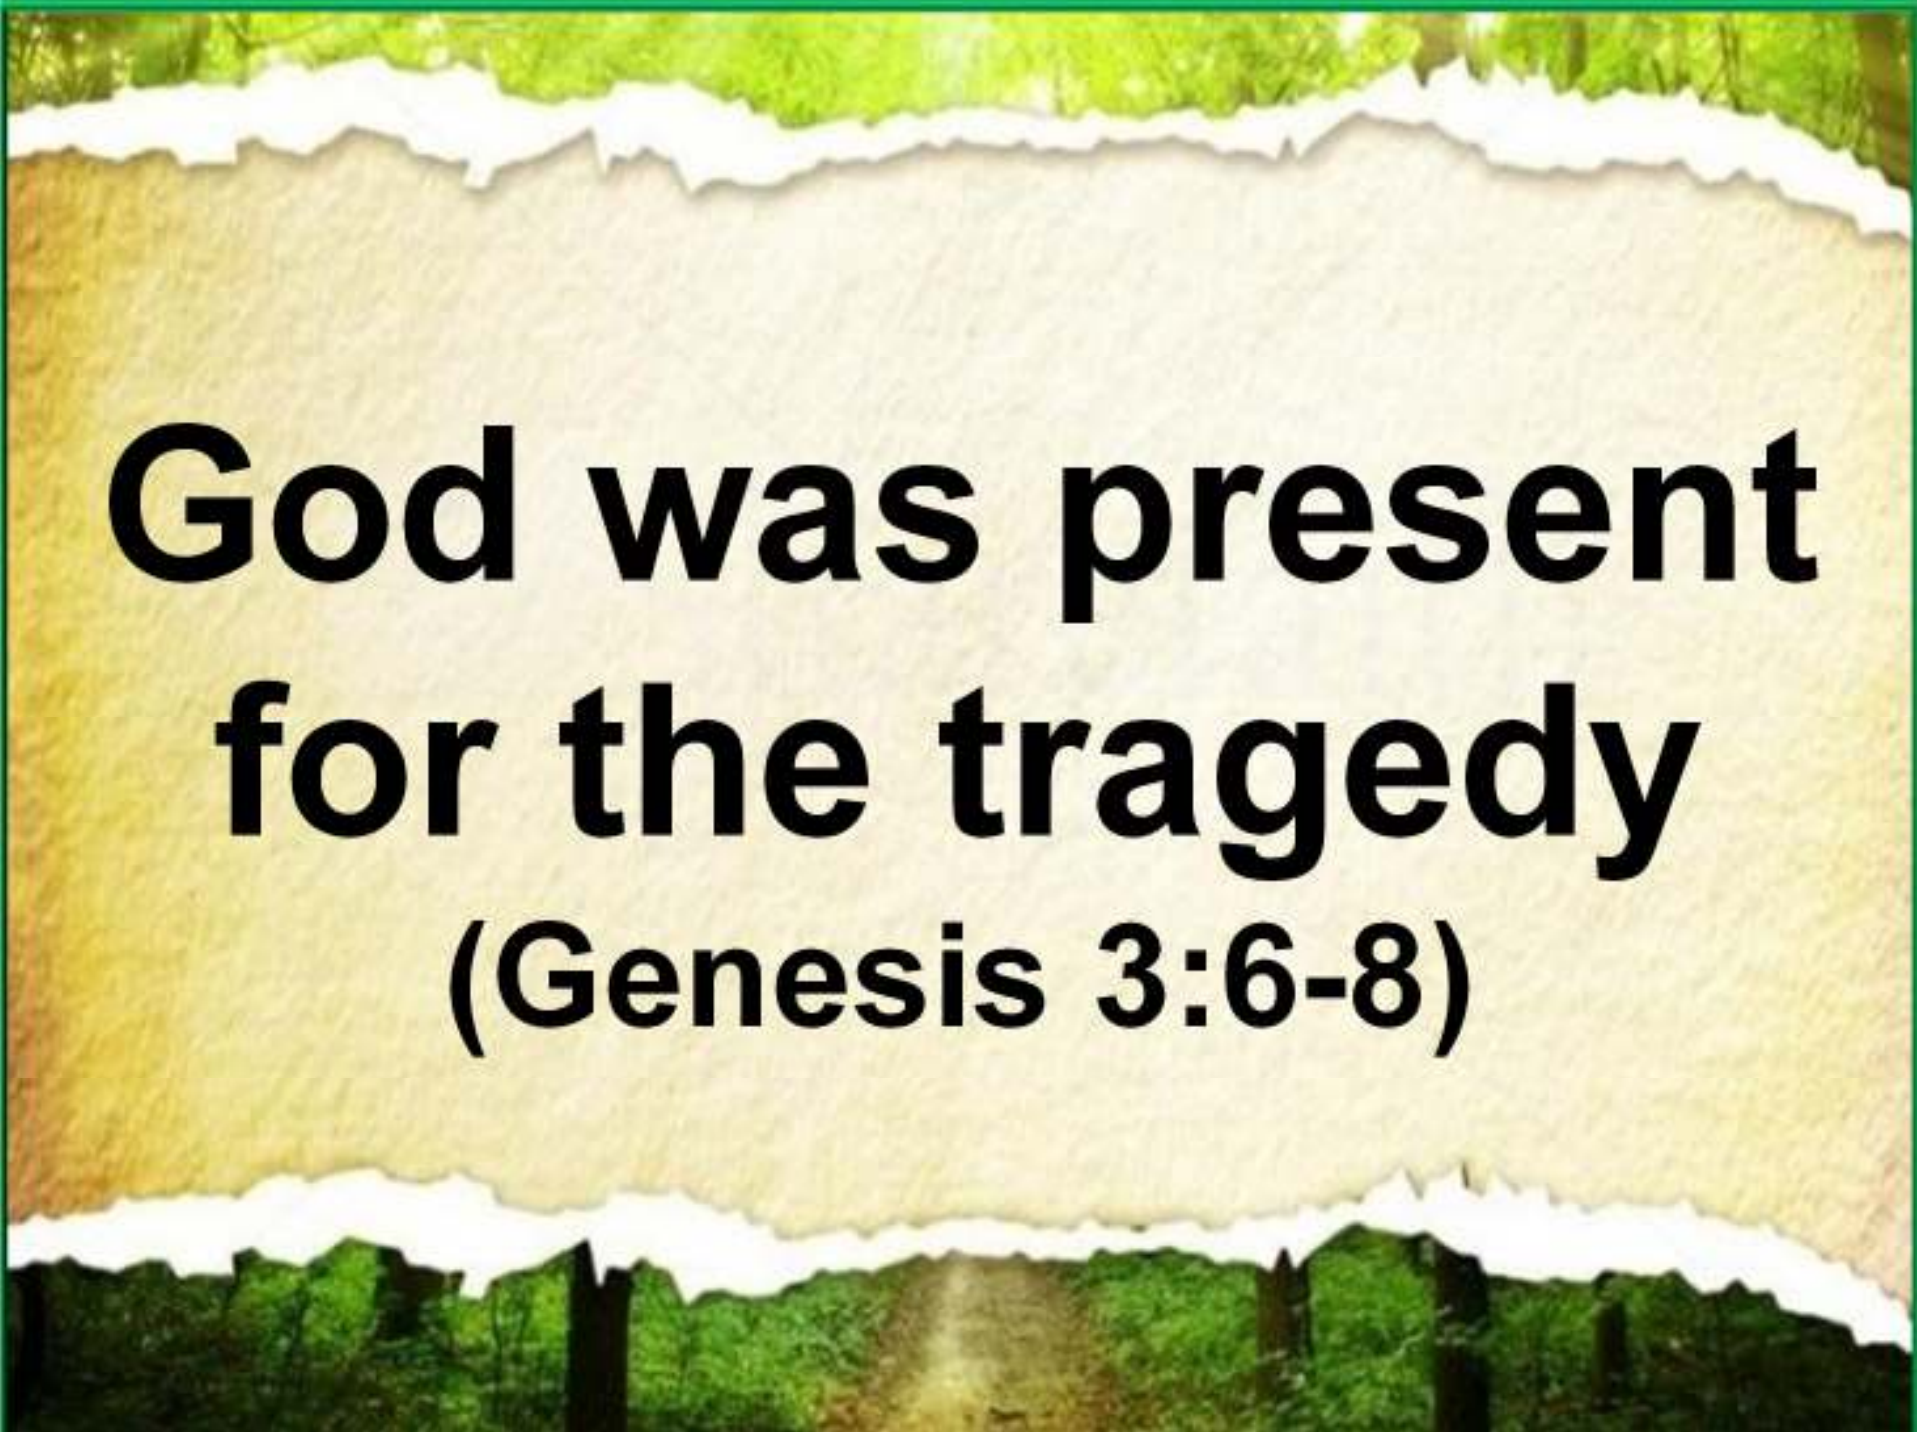

Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

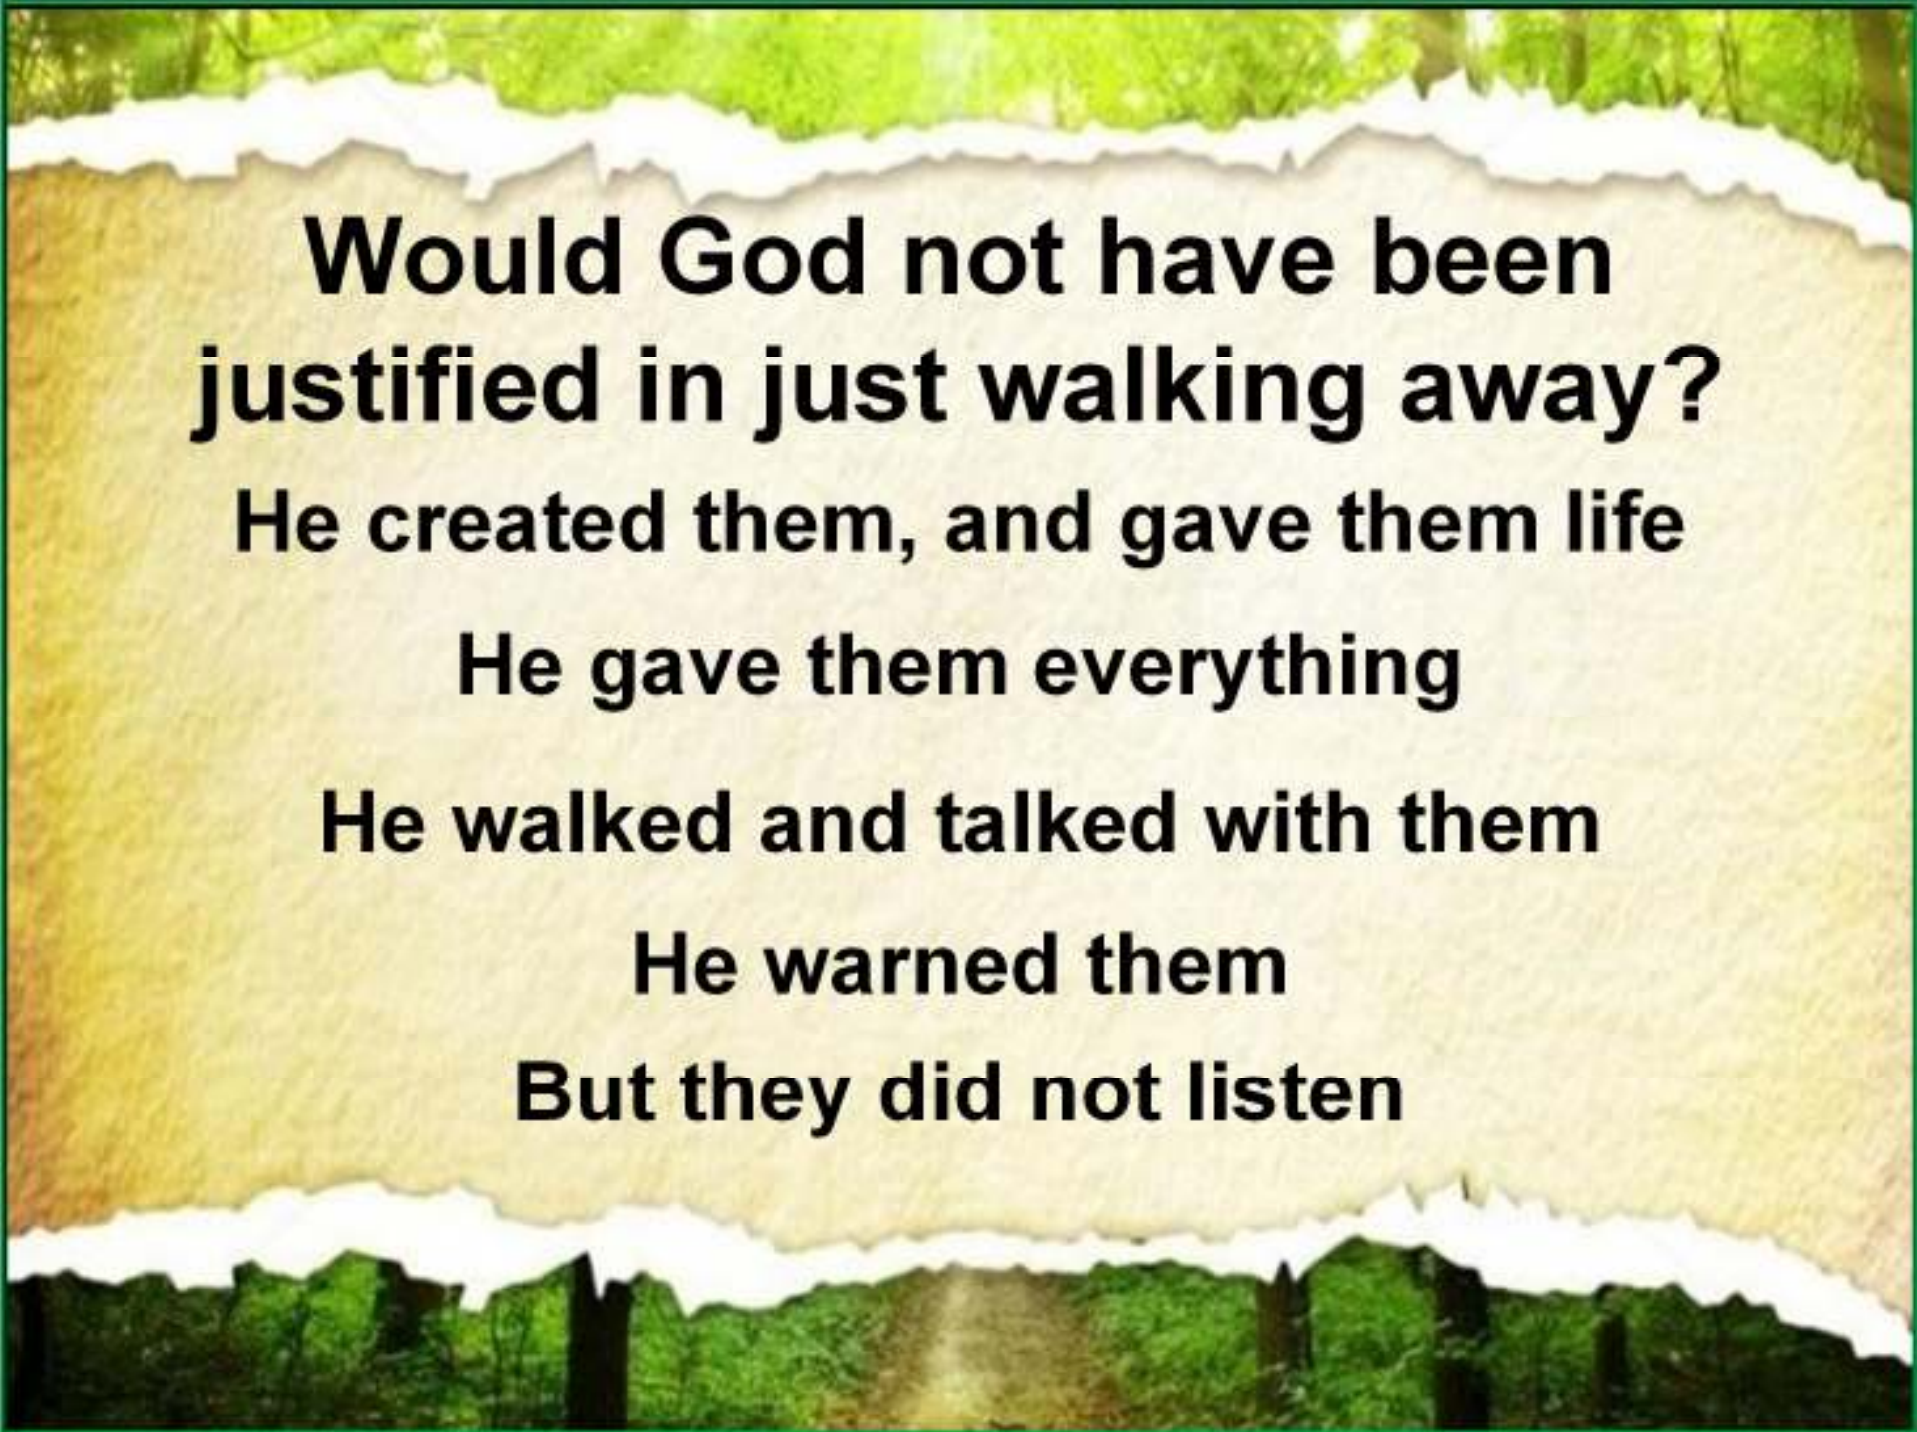

Luke 12:7

God's Love

God was present for the tragedy
(Genesis 3:6-8)

The image features a central piece of aged, yellowish-brown paper with a deckled, torn edge. This paper is set against a background of vibrant green foliage, which is visible at the top and bottom of the frame. The entire composition is enclosed within a thin, dark green border. The text on the paper is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font and is centered horizontally.

Would God not have been justified in just walking away?

He created them, and gave them life

He gave them everything

He walked and talked with them

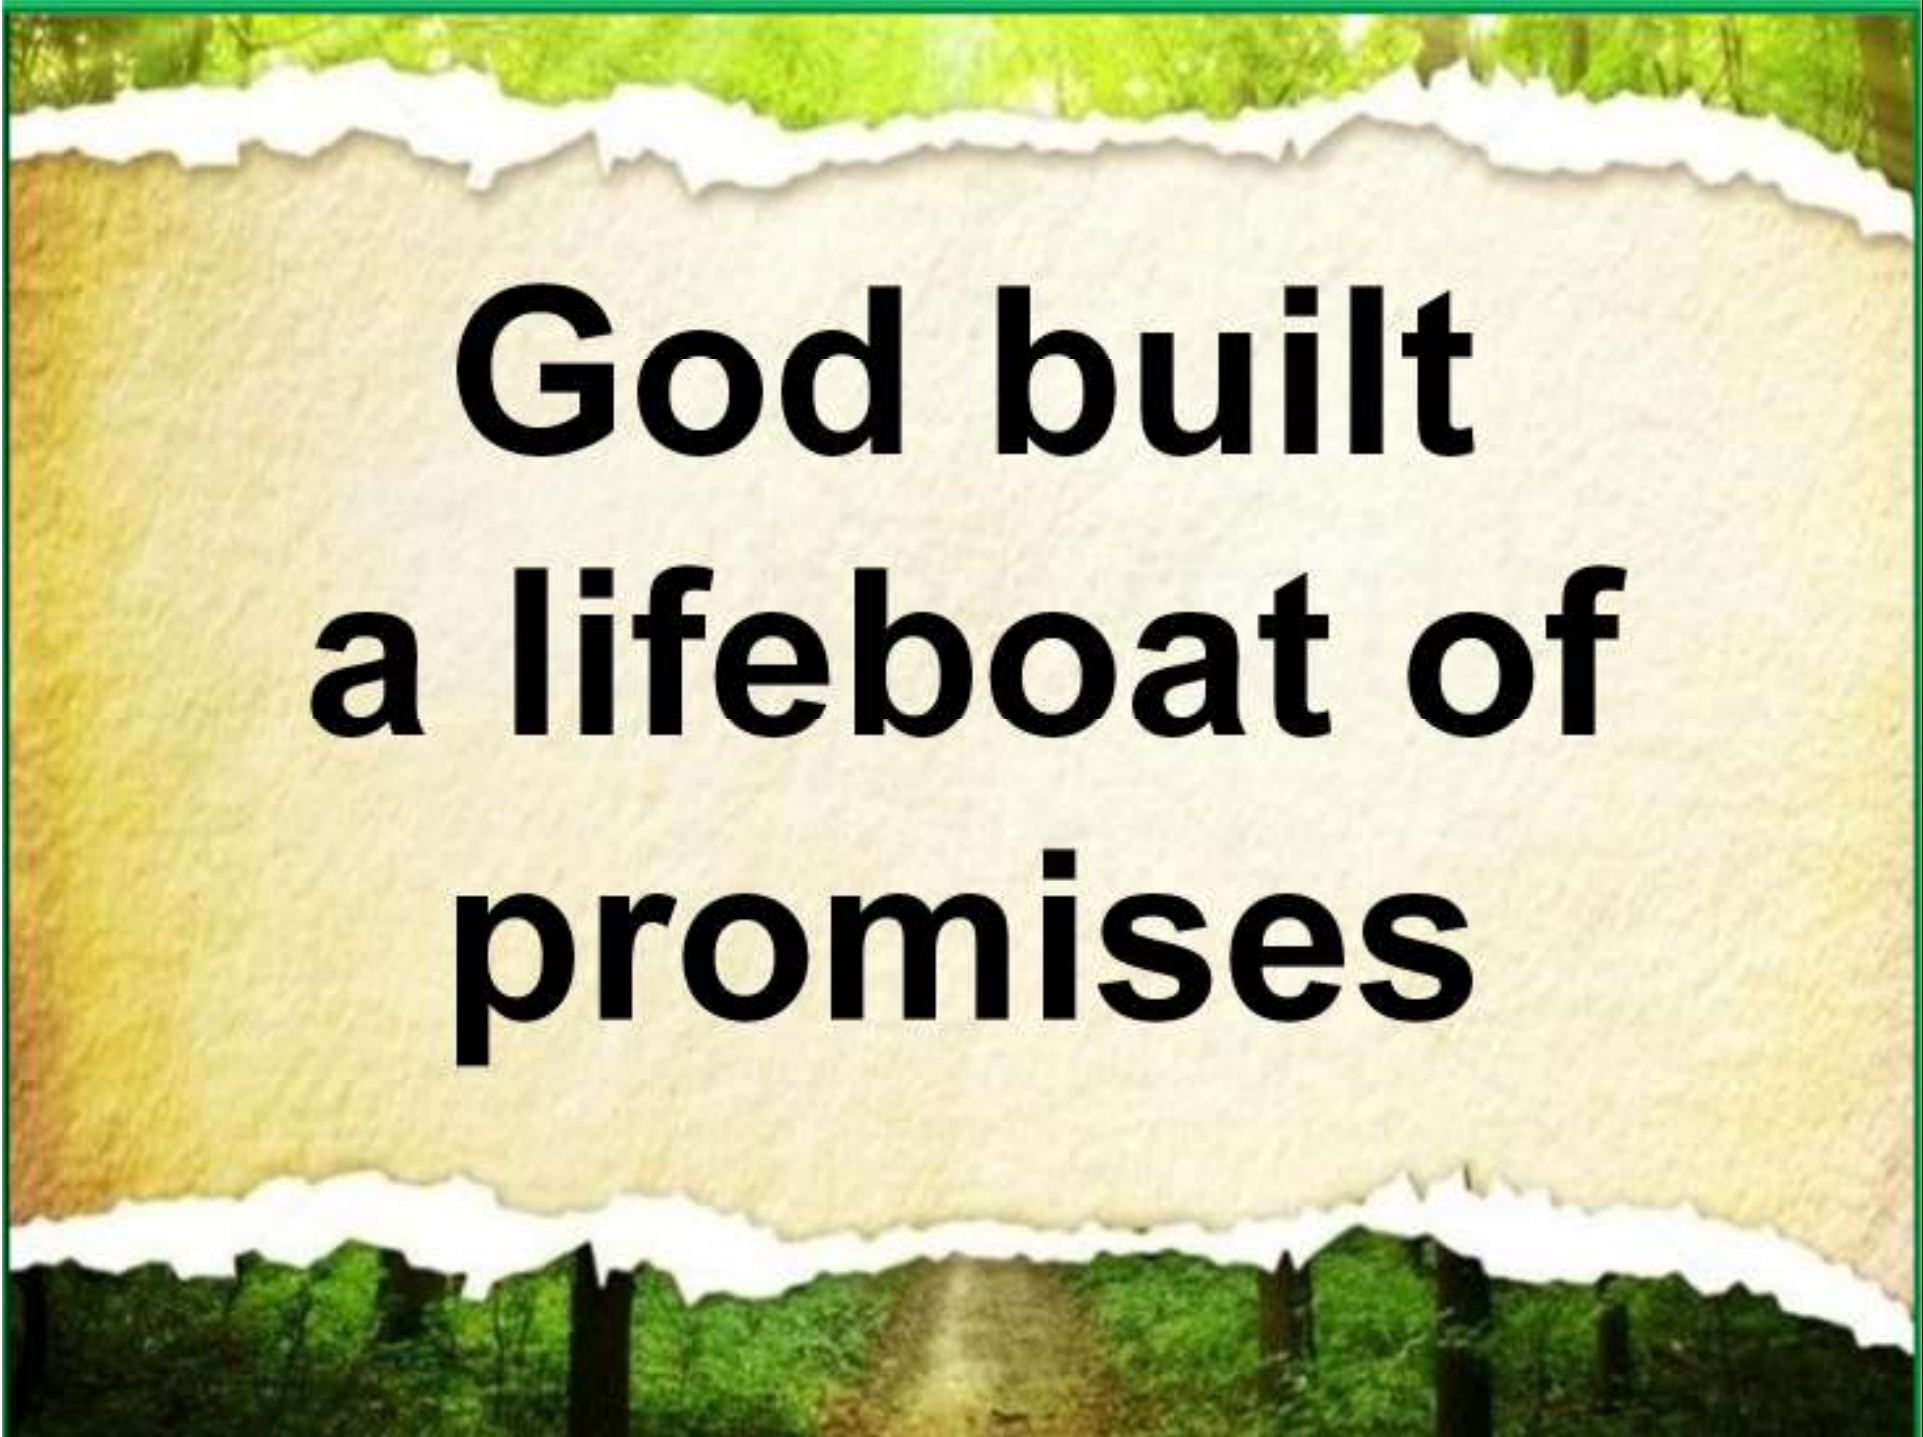

He warned them

But they did not listen

Instead they chose their own way instead of God's way

They hid and blamed

God built a lifeboat of promises

And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.”

Genesis 3:15-16

God Promised

An offspring not from man but from himself

Satan, sin and death may wound him, he would overcome

A nation

Eternity

God Dove into the Water

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:14

God Sacrificed Himself

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5:8

God Keeps Asking

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

God Keeps Asking

He makes it easy COME

COME if you are tired

COME if you are burdened

COME if you want rest

On You Onboard
with His Love?
