

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

Defining Gift

A thing given willingly to someone without payment

The image features a central piece of torn, off-white paper with a rough, deckled edge. This paper is set against a vibrant green background that has a subtle, repeating pattern of a path or road. The entire composition is framed by a thin, solid green border. The text is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font, centered on the white paper.

It's not a payment

It's not something I deserve

That He Gave His One and Only Son (Romans 5:15-18)

Confusing Words

Trespass: Going some where we are not supposed to be

Grace: Which is getting a result we do not deserve

Judgement: Being held accountable

Confusing Words

Condemnation: Being punished

Justified: Which is to be made right

Righteousness: Moral and standards

Gift
Used 5 Times
in these verses

The First Man

His name was Adam

We discussed him last week

Adam trespassed, he went where he was not supposed to go

God told him that if he went there death would follow

Things That Followed

The first thing that followed was judgement

Of course that brings us to another word condemnation

The image features a central piece of aged, yellowish-tan paper with a deckled, torn edge. This paper is set against a background of a lush green forest scene, with the top and bottom edges of the paper appearing to be torn from a larger sheet. The text is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font, centered on the paper. The overall composition is framed by a thin green border.

So we understand the issue for Adam but you do understand we have all sinned?

The image features a central piece of aged, yellowish-brown paper with a deckled, torn edge. This paper is set against a background of a vibrant green, textured surface that resembles moss or a forest floor. The entire composition is framed by a thin, solid green border. Centered on the paper is a block of text in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

That means we all live under the same judgment as Adam,
we all have been condemned

The Second Man

His name was Jesus Christ

He is the only son of God mentioned in John 3:16

He is God's gift

He came to put back what Adam messed up

How?

In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Hebrews 9:22

How?

Somebody had to Sacrifice

Morally Righteous (free from sin)

The price was too steep for us

So God decided to pay the price (Grace)

A piece of torn, aged paper with a green border. The paper is light brown and has a rough, torn edge. The text is centered on the paper.

We owed, but God paid

The image features a central piece of aged, yellowish-brown paper with a deckled, torn edge. This paper is set against a background of a lush green forest with tall trees. The entire composition is framed by a thin, solid green border. The text is written in a large, bold, black sans-serif font, centered on the paper.

God's Sacrifice gave us away to have the open relationship

That is an amazing gift

Have you received the gift?
